

Wildfire

Lomelda

It splits in two
Divide
Your purple mountain majesty
A leader pushed aside
It comes around
Surprise
You didn't see it coming
Now your leader's out of line

I don't know
Where it all ends up
All this wasted time

California
Only one who knows
How to burn without desire
Like wildfire
Wildfire, wildfire

The risk you take
The pain in loss
Coiled like a serpent hiding in between your thoughts
Coiled like a serpent in us all
Head to the wall
It's gone
Your system's overridden, intuition takes the fall
You trust in intuition over all

I don't know
Where it all ends up
All this wasted time

California
Only one who knows
How to burn without desire
Like wildfire
Wildfire, wildfire
