

Oh, Tracy

London Boys

Oh Tracy, I love you
You're like a moon and the stars
Oh Tracy, how I care for you
There's no wonder I'm in love

Everyday I'm getting over you
But when the night falls, I'm so blue
Watching movies, killing time
But nothing in my world would run

My friends say "Come on, cheer up, boy!
Forget your lady, she's a toy!"
But they're fooled, to blind to see
Our true love is my destiny

You know honey? I love you!

Oh Tracy, I love you
You're like a moon and the stars
Oh Tracy, how I care for you
There's no wonder I'm in love

Just a victim of a foolish pride
A boy, the girl, a silly fight
There's nothing wrong with making sparks
'Cause love will always make it up

So come on honey, please come home
Tonight I'm waiting by the telephone
You got the number, turn the dial
I'll make it up with you in style

Oh honey, I miss you so

Oh Tracy, I love you
You're like a moon and the stars
Oh Tracy, how I care for you
There's no wonder I'm in love

You know, honey? I will always love you!
And everything will be allright in very near future
You know, sometimes...
I think... They can make a lied*
About you and me
And the things that once had been
And how much I really love you

Oh Tracy, I love you
You're like a moon and the stars
Oh Tracy, how I care for you
There's no wonder I'm in love

Oh Tracy, I love you
Please tell me, why we're apart
My Tracy, I love only you
There's no wonder I'm in love

Oh Tracy, I love you
You're like a moon and the stars
Oh Tracy, how I care for you
There's no wonder I'm in love
