

Tonight! Tonight!

London Boys

Is it really gonna matter
Is it really gonna hurt
Will my heart break in time?

Am I standing on a ladder
Am I really on the brink
Am I just losing time?

My friends keep saying you're bad for me
I don't mind , when we're together...

I never listen, I'm missing you
'til tonight , when love makes it right.

Tonight! Tonight!
I'm going to get more than ever

Tonight! Tonight!
Yeah, we're gonna have stormy weather

Tonight!
Clumbing to the stars.

Tonight! Tonight!
I'm going to say: "You and me, love"

Tonight! Tonight!
Yeah, we're going to sail through the sea of

Love!
Never get enough.

Is the magic here forever
Are you really going to stay
Tell me why should I lie?

Would it really be so clever
To mistrust your fairy-tale
While my heart is so blind?

We're all alone in another world
You and I , happy together...

You're holding me, like I'm holding you
All the time , ahead of all time.
