Distant Light

Lonely The Brave

Erase myself, I dive into pieces
I needed help, I needed hell

The soul needs help, more inner reasons
I'm wishing you well but I needed hell

The closed sign, on the roadside
How it tore me to pieces
Now we wait in distant light

And through the closed eyes, breaks a soft sigh
And we know this is difference
Now we wait in distant light

Erase myself, I dive into pieces
I'm wishing you well but I needed hell

The closed sign, on the roadside
How it tore me to pieces
Now we wait in distant light

And through the closed eyes, breaks a soft sigh
And we know this is difference
Now we wait in distant light

(Dive, dive)
Erase myself, I dive into earth
(Dive, dive)
Erase myself, I dive into pieces

(Dive, dive)
Erase myself, I dive into earth
(Dive, dive)
Erase myself, I dive into pieces

The closed sign, on the roadside
How it tore me to pieces
Now we wait in distant light

And through the closed eyes, breaks a soft sigh
And we know this is difference
Now we wait in distant light
