

Open Door

Lonely The Brave

Man, I almost died
They got away with it
I feel it's a fear that I'm missing
In the dark, there's a clearing

Heading straight for the car, torn apart and they're straight in
Open door
Frozen start, burdened heart and the light never fades in
Open door

How it burns inside
I carry all of it
I'm feeling strange in position
While these bones won't thaw and the muscles fray

Heading straight for the car, torn apart and they're straight in
Open door
Frozen start, burdened heart and the light never fades in
Open door

If something's better, then
Show me an innocence
A late night burn, I lay by and learn
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough
Wasn't enough

Heading straight for the car, torn apart and they're straight in
Open door
Frozen start, burdened heart and the light never fades in
Open door

Where's the gunfire?
(Something I was missing)
Where's the gunfire?
(Something I was missing)
Where's the gunfire?
(Something I was missing)
Gunfire
(Heading straight for the car, torn apart)
Gunfire
Gunfire
Heading straight for the car
