

No God, No Master

Lonewolf

I saw the darkness, where no one is coming back from Open road to hell, a neverending fight

The fire's still alive
Burning paradise
I'm aiming to the top
Glory in my eyes

No god no master, metal heart on fire
Second to none, standing the night
No god no master, freedom's desire
This is my chosen way of life, until I die

Wild lawbreaker, like an eagle with iron wings
Boundless, evil's hunter, glory in my veins

The fire's still alive
Burning paradise
I'm aiming to the top
Glory in my eyes

No god no master, metal heart on fire
Second to none, standing the night
No god no master, freedom's desire
This is my chosen way of life, until I die
