

The Devil And The Liar

Longwave

What you gonna do when your number goes? What you gonna do
When in the end you're all alone with no one left at home?
Devil comes to you in the open wound
Looks you in the eye, "Boy, do you wanna go where the other liars go?"

And you lie, and you hope there's a hope

Nothing between you and the hurricane, you say

"If I'm gonna die then I hope it's not in vain" but there the devil whens again
Nobody to come rolling to your side
Nobody to call to if you wanna hide like all the other liars hide

And you lie, and you hope, there's no hope
You lie, and you know you're home
