

Friendless And Blue

Lonnie Johnson

Don't the world seem lonely : when you got to battle it all by yourself
Even the one you love : turn their back on you for someone else

My mother and dad left me : when I was too small to help myself
And my sisters and brothers : drove me away to somebody else

I'm motherless and I'm fatherless : I'm almost friendless too
Seems the world is down on you : know knows what to do

Rocks was my pillow : and the cold ground was my bed
The blue skies was my blanket : and the moonlight was my spread
