

New Black Snake Blues - Part 1

Lonnie Johnson

Something keep a-moaning : I don't know what it is

When my right eye winks : on my knees I begin to crawl
It will be hell to tell the captain : if I catch another man kicking in my stall

There's no use a-worrying : baby about the days being long
The black snake is got the dough : you can't roll him from home
