

Sweep Me Away

Looptroup Rockers

Sweep me away, sweet girl of mine
Blow me away, blow my mind

You came to me when I least expected it
Swept me off my feet no idea neglecting
It had me trapped i'm struck by the lightning
It's cold world but with you i'm never frightened
You take me to higher heights new levels
We're the winning team on the podium with all medals
Cos two as one has invincible hearts
Although i'm away and we're physically apart
Circumstances difficulties how we solve them
Not a straight path but the love is never the problem
And we got the greatest gift the world ever seen
Way better than i could ever imagine it in my dreams.

Sweep me away, sweet girl of mine
Blow me away, blow my mind

I have no idea why we ended up here
Trying to retrace my steps but i reach nowhere
About to reach the maximum my bare feet can bear
Alone, you need a good friend in these streets out here
But the street sweepers keep em empty
Not clean but nothing living that could tempt me or set free
From myself or to protect me break out from liberal individual prison
Living in a cynical city called
Break down the walls of jericho it's really cold Consisting of concrete metal glass garbage upper Lower middle class garbage
Walk around where everyone is considered a target
Everyone and everything is considered a product
People being sold in grey zones and black markets
Empty out your heart and souls empty out your pockets
And this was supposed to be a love song
Incurable romantic why the love's gone
I'm looking for a head strong woman
To prove me wrong and to...

Sweep me away, sweet girl of mine
Blow me away, blow my mind
