

I Can't Wait

Loose Ends

I can't wait
Another minute
For your love
I can't wait
Another minute
For your love

Sit here reminiscing
Thinking about the love I'm missing
Thinking of another
Baby, whether you could be my lover
Time is passing slowly
Nothing's getting better
Why aren't you here?
Oh my dear

It's a part time love affair
When she's not with you I am there
Your heart never seems to change, no
Is this a never-ending game to you?

I can't wait
Another minute (One more minute)
For your love (For that love)
I can't wait (I can't wait, no)
Another minute (One more minute)
For your love (For that love)

Looking through my window
I see the love is passing
In my heart I'm dreaming
Wishing that you could be with me
I know you have another
Well, I can't spend another night like this
No, not like this, oh

It's a part time love affair
When she's not with you I am there
Your heart never seems to change
Is this a never-ending game to you?

I can't wait (I can't wait)
Another minute (One more minute)
For your love (For that love)
I can't wait (I can't wait)
Another minute (One more minute)
For your love (For the love I need)

I can't wait (I can't wait)
Another minute (One more minute)
For your love (No, no)
I can't wait (Ooh, I can't)
Another minute
For your love

I can't wait (It's a part time love affair)
Another minute

(When she's not with you, I am there)
For your love
(When she's not with you, I am there)
I can't wait (It's a part time love affair)
Another minute
(When she's not with you, I am there)
For your love
(When she's not with you, you don't care)
I can't wait (It's a part time love affair)
Another minute
(When she's not with you, I am there)
For your love
I can't wait (It's a part time love affair)
