

I Don't Need To Love

Loose Ends

I got too much pride to be throne aside now baby (aww)

Like a jekyll and hyde you go through so many changes (oh)

Well I've been waiting too long baby
I need someone to make me strong yeah

There ain't no answer to where you coming from pretty baby
By the time you get around to me
I'll be long gone yeah yeah

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love

Emotion running wild times is much too high baby oh
Clashing are the signs eye-to-eye we don't see baby oh

I've been waiting too long baby yeah
I need someone to make me strong hey

There ain't no answer to where you coming from pretty baby
By the time you get around to me I'll be long gone

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love

Emotions running wild baby baby
Times is much too high baby baby
All emotions dry baby baby
Times is running wild baby baby

Hey hey hey yeah hey hey hey and oh oh

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love

I don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
Don't need to love I don't need to
Love no more and I don't need to love
