

seriously just stop

Loot

Let me start it off by telling you the truth
For a minute I was kinda into you
Yeah, it was what it was
Sense of humor C-
But at least the sex was B+
No, I'm not writing this because I miss you
I'm a little unrequited, confused
You love me, you hate me
You're in then you're out
You hit me up late then you go ghost

Why is your car in my apartment garage?
Why do our paths always seem to cross? (Yeah)
I see you're typing but don't bother sending Here's my response

Seriously, just stop
For the love of god, just stop
You think it's cool, it's not, just stop
Dude, I can't believe I have to say this
But seriously just, just stop

So tell me, who you're doing all this for?
The new tattoos, the Gucci shoes, the car
Is it just me or do I see you like literally every-fucking-where?
I'm not writing this because I want you back
In fact, I was kinda over it the third to last time you came over
We both said it's over, why isn't it over?

Just stop
For the love of god, just stop
You think it's cool, it's not, just stop
Dude, I can't believe I have to say this
But seriously (Can't believe I have to say this, but seriously (Can't believe I have to say this, but seriously)
(Just) stop
Stop
Seriously just
Seriously you should just stop, stop
Stop
Stop
Seriously you should just stop, stop

Why can't we just call it a loss?
Why is this message not getting across?
You're typing again but please don't bother sending Yeah, here's my response

Stop
For the love of god, just stop
You think it's cool, it's not, just stop
Dude, I can't believe I have to say this
But seriously just stop
For the love of god, just stop
You think it's cool, just stop
Dude, I can't believe I have to say this

But seriously just stop
