Weirdo, Pt. 2

Loote

Never been a sucker for commitment
Since High School high Standards high livin
Turns out I never knew what I was missing
Cause God damn when I'm with you it (it's all) feels different

We go together like treble and bass
Like colors and spring
Cool kids and cocaine
You're the only vaccine
To cure the mundane
I guess what I'm saying

Is that you're a weirdo
But I wouldn't have it any other way
You're no superhero
Still you're the one that's always savin Me
(Only) one in 7 billion makes me feel it
Can't you see
That only a weirdo ... a weirdo
Could love someone like me

Taught myself to run from feelings
Cuz I don't trust nobody
I got what I need
Turns out you found the part of me was missing
And goddamn you make the ground feel like the ceiling

We go together like rockets and space
Like Frankie and Grace
Cool kids and cocaine
The way you carry yourself
You do it so well
But I can still tell

Is that you're a weirdo
But I wouldn't have it any other way
You're no superhero
Still you're the one that's always savin me
Only one in 7 billion makes me feel it
Can't you see
That only a weirdo ... a weirdo
Could love someone like me

Is that you're a weirdo
But I wouldn't have it any other way
You're no superhero
Still you're the one that's always savin me
Only one in 7 billion makes me feel it
Can't you see
That only a weirdo ... a weirdo
Could love someone like me
