

It All Comes Back

Lord Huron

You rule my desire
Staring into the fire and waiting on a sign
Cursing the night you waved goodbye

You make me a fool
You rise and fall
Together with the moon
I look to the sky and wait for you

It all comes back to you
It all comes back to you

There's nothing to do
There's nowhere to go
And no one else to know
Just watching the darkness wave hello

You played me a fool
I heard your words
But none of them were true
I'd rather die than lie to you

It all comes back to you
It all comes back to you

Loops in my mind
Spinning circles in time
Living infinite lives
Are they mine? I can't be sure
But I've seen this before
When you walk through the door
Which way will you go?

Am I losing my mind?
Staring into the fire
And hoping I go blind
Watching the fragile past unwind

You make me a fool
You pass me by
Darkening the sky
You whisper hello and wave goodbye

It all comes back to you
It all comes back to you
