

Life Is Strange

Lord Huron

Life is strange, so am I
I'll be strange 'til the day that I die
Life is sad, so are you
That's alright, we can cry if you want to

Let's drink, here's to us, take a cup, go on, fill it up
But you said you really don't drink anymore
Well, do what you must, in the end, we all turn to dust
And I'll stay forever right here if you want me to

Life is strange, tell me why I
Feel alone when I stare at the sky
I'm unworthy, so are you
Life is strange, so I do what I do
Sing the old songs, make me cry
I will stay 'til the day that I die
I'm a lost cause, so are you
Life is short, I'm gon' do what I want to

How do I get over you? I know the way
Just watch you fade away
How do I get over you? I'll find a way
I'll learn to swallow pain

Let's dream 'til we drown, 'til our tears swallow us down
But you said you really don't dream anymore
So leave if you must, you can stay, but nobody does
And I'll wait forever right here if you want me to

Life is strange, so am I
I'll be strange 'til the day that I die
I'm unworthy, so are you
People changed, so I do what I do
Make your own way, take your time
I will stay 'til the day that I die
I'm a lost cause, so are you
I can't change who I am, I don't want to

Just tears for the young, here's a cup, go on, fill it up
Is it true that you really don't dream anymore?
Well, do what you must, in the end, we all turn to dust
And I'll stay forever right here if you want me to
