

Louisa

Lord Huron

Good for nothing is the name they'll remember me by done nothin' with my life for no one, I'm just waitin' to die
I turned my back on the world
you know I'd given up on livin' til I met you girl

Then you came into my life with come hither in your eyes Pulling me outta the grave what a nice surprise
I die when our nights end, but I only stay dead til I see you a gain

I lie awake in the night just to see another dawn
Used to be the sun was my weakness but them days are gone
I feel your lips on mine
Will you meet me by the river, baby, one more time?

I'll give you what you wanna have, I'll take you where you wann a go
I'm the only man you'll ever need, girl, and now you know I'll write your name on my skin, as a promise that we'll never be apart again

I feel alive when I'm with you, baby
So tell me that I won't ever be lonely again
Don't wanna die I wanna wander the world with you and no one else for the rest of my days on this earth.

I turned my back on the world.
I wasn't always like this, girl
Do you know what loneliness does to a man?
Turn him into the walking dead
I may have died but your lovin' raised me.

I feel alive when I'm with you, baby
So tell me that I won't ever be lonely again
You saved my life I just wanna repay you in kind ain't no one else ever tell you you're beautiful, girl?

I feel alive when I'm with you, baby.
So tell me that I won't ever be lonely again.
Don't wanna die I wanna wander the world with you
and no one else for the rest of my days on this earth
