

Your Other Life

Lord Huron

[Verse 1]

I won't be the one to say
You'll never come back again though I don't think you will
I won't be the reason why
You stay until you're dead although I hoped you would

[Refrain 1]

I know what you've done
And I know who you've been dreaming of
I know where you go in the dead of night
You don't get to be the one
Who's young and wild and in love
You don't get to live your other life

[Verse 2]

I don't need to hear you say
You'll never go wrong again because I know you will
I don't need the reasons why
You've done the things you did because it's over with
I won't waste another day on you
I've played the fool, I guess that's part of love
I won't shed another tear
I've nothing left to feel and now I've said enough

[Bridge]

You're living in your other life
I'll leave you in another life

[Outro]

I just came to say that I will never forget you, dear
I cannot forgive your awful lies
What I say today will be the very last words you hear
You don't get to live your other life
