

Abandon Ship

Lord Of The Lost

A one way trip to eternity
The lives of all, inhabit me
I give myself to the deep blue sea
For I am this ship and the ship is me
The rats have left so long ago
Run from the sea, the ice cold snow
Is calling, the rain must be mortal
Abandon ship, abandon ship
The death bell's calling, the wheel's come full circle
Abandon ship, abandon ship

Sacrificed in sacred ice
All we know, can't break the lies
Through blackened night, they've woken up
Just to return, where they'd begun

Betray myself, betray my men
Paint and blood is what I am
I'm born in here, here I stay
Through the storm I say

Abandon ship, abandon ship
Your death is coming, bring us to water
Abandon ship, abandon ship
Your death is coming, wheel's come full circle

We're going down, down, down, down

Your breath is fresh and pure
I welcome you with open arms
Around me soundly, ice!

Abandon ship, abandon ship
Tonight!
Abandon ship, abandon ship
Tonight!
Abandon ship, abandon ship
Tonight!
Abandon ship, abandon ship
