

My feet are on the ground
But still I'm sinking deeper
I am nearly drowned
But still you're inside me

Without you I am nothing
Without you I am nothing

I am going down
But still I feel your warmth beside me
You seem to be around
In every single person I try to be

Without you I am nothing

I had what I wanted
What I want is only you
But if I died today
Then perfectly happy with love for you

I can't deny
That I'm on my knees to give it
Another try
Now give us a chance to live it
I know that I will love you till the day I die

I'm going underground
But still, still I'm sinking deeper
Now I'm beyond the bound
I never get you back but you are free

Without you I am nothing
But myself
