Lord Of The Lost

Now breathe in ghosts and crawl inside
To kneel and choke before the hive
I fall unto these hands
I call into the black

Are you out there?
Are you out there?
I suffer
Your thirteenth suffers

Are you out there?
I'm clinging to the dark
Are you out there?
My fallen counterpart
Betrayal burns
Like the silver in my heart
Are you out there?
The error of the stars

Now steal into oblivion
Beneath the true obsidian
I fall unto the heath
I call into the deep

Are you out there?
Are you out there?
I suffer
Your thirteenth suffers

Are you out there?
I'm clinging to the dark
Are you out there?
My fallen counterpart
Betrayal burns
Like the silver in my heart
Are you out there?
The error of the stars

The error of the stars
The error of the stars
A searing oath
In the circles of his heart
Are you out there?
The error of the stars

Are you out there?
I'm clinging to the dark
Are you out there?
My fallen counterpart
Betrayal burns
Like the silver in my heart
Are you out there?
The error of the stars

From fields of blood
To the furnace of his heart
Are you out there?

The error of the stars
