

Damage

Lord Of The Lost

The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul

I am my victim of hurt
I inflicted myself
As I poisoned this well
Said yes to the negative
How much I loved how it felt
And I was going to hell

Simple to harm
So hard to cure

Crash, crack, then fall
The damage I did to my soul
Alone I crawl
The damage I did to my soul

Frail from the feelings I've chased
And these dark deeds I've done
And this beast I've become
Way too ashamed to forget
Too coward to feel regret
And too weak to be numb

Simple to harm
So hard to cure
One day I'll fix
The hurt we endure

Crash, crack, then fall
The damage I did to my soul
Alone I crawl
The damage I did to my soul

The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul

The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul

You know
I'm damaged just like all you people
I'm damaged just like all you people
I'm damaged just like all you people
I'm damaged just like all you people

Crash, crack, then fall
The damage I did to my soul
Alone I crawl
The damage I did to my soul

The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul
The damage I did to my soul
