

Drag Me to Hell

Lord Of The Lost

(One)

You like to give me strength
To face the daily dirt

(Two)

You fill my hollow heart
With fake self worth

(Three)

You like to let me know
I cannot break the spell

(Four)

The more I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell

This love eviscerates
Still I am in your thrall
Sleep offers no escape
I feel temptation call
Repulsed by my own mind
Obsession craves respect
To justify the time
When all the pain
Can make sense to me
You can't be what you're not
(The more I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell)

Hate me
Forever and ever
The more that you love me
The more it will ever
Kill me
Forever and ever
The more that life stabs me
The more and the more and the more
The more that I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell

You keep the secret of
My sordid other life
You guarantee to take
My lows so high
Then I fall again
You can't beat what you are
(The more I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell)

Hate me
Forever and ever
The more that you love me
The more it will ever
Kill me
Forever and ever
The more that life stabs me
The more and the more and the more
The more that I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell

(One)
You've made me steal
You've made me lie
(Two)
You've made me weak
Wanting to die
(Three)
I'm not your first
Won't be your last
(Four)
All that I ask
Don't drag me to Hell

Drag me to Hell
It's war baby, war baby
War baby, yeah
It's war baby, war
Life is war
Drag me to Hell

Hate me
Forever and ever
The more that you love me
The more it will ever
Kill me
Forever and ever
The more that life stabs me
The more and the more and the more
The more that I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell

Hate me

Kill me

The more that I reach out for Heaven
The more you drag me to Hell
