

Dying on the Moon

Lord Of The Lost

I question things I thought I knew
My doubt was overdue
Can't feel the way they said I'm supposed to
I can't believe in what isn't true

I have to keep my heart
To myself be true
I have to keep my heart
My love shows me a way to you

We're on the run
We're leaving soon
One day we're dying on the moon
Yes, we are done
We swim and swoon
One day we're dying on the moon

I finally found my peace of mind
I chose to leave some things behind
What I believe is undefined
But I have a feeling God will be kind

I have to keep my heart
To myself be true
I have to keep my heart
My love shows me a way to you

We're on the run
We're leaving soon
One day we're dying on the moon
Yes, we are done
We swim and swoon
One day we're dying on the moon

I gotta trust my heart
It never betrayed me
And you cannot persuade me
To go back to what I had
I cannot pacify the ones who will look down on me
Or I would go mad
The map inside of me has lead me down another path
And I'm here to say it's not so bad

I have to keep my heart
To myself be true
I have to keep my heart
My love shows me a way to you

We're on the run
We're leaving soon
One day we're dying on the moon
Yes, we are done
We swim and swoon

One day we're dying on the moon
