

I Will Die In It

Lord Of The Lost

My heart in pain
Will I ever be the same again
When hate is unveiled
I defy what it will make of me

To hope is insanity
Pray for the enemy
Don't give up that easy
Sing your own rhapsody
You are alive
Just to build your own destiny
Life comes with tragedy
But you are never alone

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
I never took the easy way
But I'm okay with it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
I was not born in love
But I will die in it

What has begun
Has no need to stay until the end
I won't come undone
Nor will I give in to my descent

I'm tired of agony
Fled from calamity
Found love in everything
Built my own life
So it won't become saddening
I am rebuilt to the core

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
I never took the easy way
But I'm okay with it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
I was not born in love

Born hating
Die loving
Born hating
Die loving

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
I never took the easy way
But I'm okay with it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it

I was not born in love
But I will die in it
