

Lighthouse

Lord Of The Lost

You're sleeping with no chance to dream
Life has become a silent scream
You've gone through hell
You've lost your fight
But it's time to rise, the time to rise

Wake up, wake up
Light a candle in the dark
Wake up, wake up
Light a fire in your heart
We are your rock against the flood
So don't let go
We are your lighthouse in the dark
When all seems lost
So don't let go
Don't let go

Deep in the shadows beauty hides
A wondrous world is yours to find
The code is black with this invite
And the dream is a life, embrace the night
Wake up, wake up, wake up

Wake up, wake up
Light a candle in the dark
Wake up, wake up
Light a fire in your heart
We are your rock against the flood
So don't let go
We are your lighthouse in the dark
When all seems lost
So don't let go
Don't let go

You're one of us now
This moment's to share, there's hope in despair

Wake up, wake up
Light a candle in the dark
Wake up, wake up
Light a fire in your heart
We are your rock against the flood
So don't let go
We are your lighthouse in the dark
When all seems lost
So don't let go

We are your rock against the flood
You're one of us
So don't let go
We are your lighthouse in the dark
When all seems lost
So don't let go
Don't let go

Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up

No, don't let go
