

Love in a Time of War

Lord Of The Lost

Sometimes I feel
Like I'm standing still
This world's spinning
Faster each day, each day
No time to lose
No time to recall
No time to choose
Fade away after all

Love in a time of war
We can not feel anymore
Love in a time of darkness
We killed love in a time of war
There's a war in my head
I can't stop the hurt
I can't close my eyes to escape, escape

I still own that hate
That keeps me awake
Nights of bombing instead
And this war in my head
Love in a time of war
We can not feel anymore
Love in a time of darkness
We killed love in a time of war

Until till today the flowers of evil didn't fade
The doors of perception are wide opened today
We sit and wait for the day of God's wrath
Eager to pray, to escape the aftermath

Love in a time of war
We can not feel anymore
Love in a time of darkness
We killed love in a time
Love in a time of hate
Blindness is lying in wait
Love in the time of horror
We killed love in a time
A time of war
