

My Constellation

Lord Of The Lost

The horizon will weep
When it swallows you whole
I still feel your soul
While our god's still asleep

In celestial bliss
Breaths like ocean tides
When we run from the lights
The dreams we resist

I hold you close to my heart
You're my revelation
You're my revelation
And my cross
I'll always follow your stars
You're my constellation
You're my constellation
When I'm lost

Oh impossible mine
When you will be gone
Alone
A night will be a lifetime

Will our prayers come through?
When you're silent I'm lost
In love, star-crossed
I look up and see you

I hold you close to my heart
You're my revelation
You're my revelation
And my cross
I'll always follow your stars
You're my constellation
You're my constellation
When I'm lost

Two moons
Aligned
Invisible ties
Blamelessly in my arms fall asleep
In my arms fall asleep
Sinking in eternal sleep

I hold you close to my heart
You're my revelation
You're my revelation
And my cross
I'll always follow your stars
You're my constellation
You're my constellation
When I'm lost

I hold you close to my heart
(You're my revelation)
You're my revelation

And my cross
(You're my constellation)
When I'm lost
