

Pale Rider

Lord Of The Lost

In the night, when the twin suns rise
You can see him on the firmament
And when he comes, he calls your name
You know it's over, this is the end

Like pawns we fall one by one
The bone man comes and sings his song
It's harvest time, you owe your life
He collects your debt, get on his ride

Darling, can't you hear his call?

Don't call my name, I still have time
Ride on without me 'cause my flame is still alight
Just let me stay, once it's my time
I'm coming after you forever into the night

And now the winter falls, he unites us all
Fall's gone forever more
And now the winter falls, he unites us all
He severs the cord

You look good in red
You look good in dead
This is our time, let's go

You look good in red
You look good in dead
This is our time, let's go

Don't call my name, I still have time
Ride on without me 'cause my flame is still alight
Just let me stay, once it's my time
I'm coming after you forever into the night

One at a time
One at a time (We go)
One at a time
One at a time (We go)
One at a time
One at a time
We go to our essential

Don't call my name, I still have time
Ride on without me 'cause my flame is still alight

Don't call my name, I still have time
Ride on without me 'cause my flame is still alight
Just let me stay, once it's my time
I'm coming after you forever into the night

Ride on!
Ride on!
Pale rider, keep on riding!
Ride on!
Ride on!
Pale rider, keep on riding!
