

Please Break The Silence

Lord Of The Lost

Lonely nights, shadows cast
In this world I feel so lost
In my heart a haunting cry
Please break the silence, let it die
Whispers echo, voices fade
When I leave the dark, I'm afraid

In the silence I suffocate
Oh, give me your guidance before it's too late

Please break the silence
Let me breathe again
Oh, please break the silence
You can end this hell
Down in this hollow
I am bound to fall
So please break the silence
Break down your walls
Please break the silence

Are you alive? Are you afraid?
Do you fall asleep at night? Are you okay?
I'll be waiting, please let me know
Should I lose myself in hope or let you go?
(I don't know)

In the silence I suffocate
Oh, give me your guidance before it's too late

Please break the silence
Let me breathe again
Oh, please break the silence
You can end this hell
Down in this hollow
I am bound to fall
So please break the silence
Break down your walls

Let it die!

I am suffocating
I'm begging you
(Here in this hell)
I'm begging you
(All hope seems gone)
I'm begging you
(Break down your walls)
For just one sign of life

Let me breathe again
You can end this hell

Please break the silence
Here in this hell
All hope seems gone
Break down your walls
Please break the silence

Here in this hell
All hope seems gone
Break down your walls
Please break the silence

(Please break the silence)
