Lord Of The Lost

Come hold me close
Sink your teeth into my skin
Torn far below
Break me like porcelain
I let go of fear
And I'll never regret
The end feels so near
But I'll never forget
I want to believe
But once bitten twice shy
I want to receive
Absolution to die
One day in your arms
Unable to try
Pretending I'm strong
When I'm closing my eyes

Come hold me close
Sink your teeth into my skin
Torn far below
Break me like porcelain
I let go of fear
And I'll never regret
The end feels so near
But I'll never forget

I want a piece
Or a splinter at least
As proof of eternal
Commitment to me
I love the sound
When you call out my name
To bid me farewell
When I leave still untamed

Everything hurts
It's all going by
We all disappear
When everything dies
Everything hurts
It's all going by
We all disappear
When everything dies

Come hold me close
Sink your teeth into my skin
Torn far below
Break me like porcelain
I let go of fear
And I'll never regret
The end feels so near
But I'll never forget

Sink your teeth into my skin
Break me like porcelain
