

So Good It Hurts

Lord Of The Lost

So good it hurts
So good it hurts
So good it hurts me so good
So good it hurts
So damn good it hurts
I still can feel
I forget that I could
I thought I would die
Now I feel so alive
So good it hurts
So good

So good it hurts
So good it hurts
It's been a long rocky road
So good it hurts
To feel my heart ache
I'm still standing strong and unbowed
The long way out of hell
Is stoned with double-bladed spears
But I'm here

So good it hurts
So good it hurts
It's been an age since I was here
So good it hurts
Full-blooded and live
I'll never again disappear
The long way out of hell
Is stoned with anger and disgrace
The longer way to heaven
Is impossible to tramp
At nightfall I will wrap my heart in Blackness
For them
