

The Things We Do For Love

Lord Of The Lost

The one that I adore
Is gone and won't come back
And we've been here before
Our story's left for dead
We keep on taking turns
The hurt is not enough
We're always going back
To the things we do for love

The things, the things, the things
The things, the things, the things
The things, the things, the things
The things we do for love

A love made of remnants
Of what once was us
But all is not lost
A longing so strong
No one will ever take this from us
Can't pretend we will never lose trust
How many times did we feel
Did we think that we lose it all?
But we'll never fall
Never fall down

The things we do for love
The things we do

We kill, we fight
We lose, we die
We trust, we sacrifice
We break, we scar
The things we do for love

The things we do for love

So radical to think
That we'd be no more
I hold on to you
I'll never let go of you
Cannot believe it's over
Can't be another way
I sacrifice all I am to let you be with me 'cause

These things we do for love

We heal, we hurt
We care, we curse
We damn, we doom, we nurse
We burn, we char
The things we do for

The things we do for
Love
Anything goes
We fight our last war
Like never before

Our love is stronger

We kill, we fight

We lie, we cheat

We beg, we plead

We give, we take, we bleed

We pair, we part

The things we do for love

The things we do for

Love

The things we do for

No sin, no war is too big to compare

We give up all that we are

Oh, to love's to hurt, to be hurt and feel hell

No, nothing leaves us so endlessly scarred
