

Would You Walk With Me Through Hell?

Lord Of The Lost

Through days of pain and fields of fire
Your destiny still my desire
My final drop of blood I'd spill
For your salvation I would kill
Your wish is now my will

In the shadows where I'm free
In the ruins, stand with me

Would you walk with me through hell
In a world of hollow hope
Never let me go
Would you walk with me through hell
In this battle, side by side
Would you walk with me through hell

Forever yours
Forever mine
Above the grief we leave behind

In your silent cries
I see you
I see your face
Each step an ancient tale, so grave
Each breath a promise meant to save

In the ruins, stand with me
In the shadows where I'm free

Would you walk with me through hell
In a world of hollow hope
Never let me go
Would you walk with me through hell
In this battle, side by side
Would you walk with me through hell

Walk with me through hell
Walk with me through-

Nothing's gone, lost in vain
In this war we call life game
You and I enduring fire
Bound by one desire

Would you walk with me through hell
In a world of hollow hope
Never let me go
Would you walk with me through hell
In this battle, side by side
Would you walk with me through hell

And in the end
We walk as one
Throughout the sorrow's gate forever bound
And in the end
We never drown
Would you walk with me through hell
