

Bring It On

Lordi

Hello, I am me, who the hell are you?
I bring a word from the dead
This is the day they shall re-animate
And get their claws on your necks

A pack of raging wolves are howling Awakes from their sleep of sin hail to the creeps -HAIL!
Thunder unleashed - HAIL!
No beasts so fierce

Bring it on, bring it on big time
Bring it on, Bring it on down
Bring it on the rancorous return from their graves Won't you bring it on, bring it on big time
bring it on, bring it on down
bring it on
behold your town will burn as the raging hounds return

The rampant helldogs rampaging near the unholy proliferates they taste your blood and they smell your fear on your mark - get set - decapitate!

Ominous hae dispersing by the moonlights order they got their prey they're gone with your daughters claimed their souls turned 'em into martyrs they will burn
as the hounds return
