

Dead Again Jayne

Lordi

Up on the silver screen you looked so alive
I fell in love at first sight
You lost your head because of some other guy
But now I'm making you mine

I took a shovel and I went to your grave
You will re-animate
We had one night until the very next day
Death took you away

Jayne
How did you end up dead again
Jayne
Bringing you back is all in vain
Jayne
You keep on ending up dead again
Dead again

Necromancing her for morning toast
By lunchtime she is gone
Post mortem when she wakes I like the most
But she's ice cold by dawn
She don't like it when I make her mine
That may be why she dies
Resurrected for the twentieth time
Patched her up real fine

Jayne
How did you end up dead again
Jayne
Bringing you back is all in vain
Jayne
You keep on ending up dead again
Your death I will reverse
Your ex won't lift the curse

Dead again (dead again)
Dead again (dead again)
You dead, dead again

Jayne
How did you end up dead again
Jayne
Bringing you back is all in vain
Jayne
You keep on ending up dead again
Dead again
Dead again (dead again)
Dead again
Dead again
