

Hulking Dynamo

Lordi

Among the right or wrong
No I won't go along
Tired of hearing orders from the world

I shake your hand and smile
Still outcast all the while
Look in my eyes
There's calm before the storm

I wanna know
Which way to go
I'm sent to blow a hulking dynamo
I stomp around
Breaking the ground
I am the sound of hulking dynamo

Your world is out of date
Fast or super rate
Swelling up with authority

Yeah, you're eager to get away
Always going but not today
Too god damn big for anyone to bleed
