

Re-Animate

Lordi

You don't know what you should want, what is your desire
You can't tell what drives you not wanting to aim higher
What you do ain't nothing to write home about
Living dead, that's what you are without a doubt

Go break your bones
Go feel the breeze
Go walk the walk, start living how you want to live

The lights are on but no one's home
There is no life signs in the dome
The pulse is strong but will is weak
Burning out before you peak

Kickstart the dead, re-animate
Yeah
Re-animate
Yeah yeah yeah
Re-animate

You won't be more than just talk without an infusion
You want some break outta that ice that's keeping you frozen
Just enough that's all you ever try to do
Living dead, how come that's good enough for you?

Go break your bones
Go feel the breeze
Go walk the walk, start living how you want to live

The lights are on but no one's home
There is no life signs in the dome
The pulse is strong but will is weak
Burning out before you peak

Kickstart the dead, re-animate
Yeah
Re-animate
Yeah yeah yeah
Re-animate
Yeah
Re-animate
Yeah yeah yeah
Re-animate

Won't you get up from the scum
So you just do it and then it's done

Come back to life and grab the power
Come feel alive, eleventh hour
There's no excuse, rising from the gutter
Objection overruled, be yourself and be no one other

The lights are on but no one's home
There is no life signs in the dome
The pulse is strong but will is weak
Burning out before you peak

Kickstart the dead, re-animate
Yeah
Re-animate
Yeah yeah yeah
Re-animate
Yeah
Re-animate
Yeah yeah yeah
Re-animate
