

Coming Close

Loreen

Sirens call
Wake up the dream
Sweet like raindrops
Clarity under the smoke
Silence falls
Rise and release
Through the chaos

I feel you coming close, close
I feel you coming close, close
I feel you coming
I feel you coming
I feel you coming
I feel you coming close, close
I feel you coming clo-

Reaching through the space in between
I realize I've never been on my own
The crowded room, the calm underneath
The tears in my eyes

I feel you coming close, close
I feel you coming close
I feel you coming
I feel you coming

Every leaf that falls in the winter
Every rose that starts to bloom
Every broken star, every healing heart
All comes back to you
In the deepest sigh of surrender
In the moment gone too soon
I can hear you calling
Let go, darling... I'm still here with you
I'm still here with you
I'm still here with you
