

Lose That Light

Loreen

World's gone wild, but I've still got faith
Now I feel like living when I look at your face
Hanging upside down in a fever dream
Light speed love, knock me off of my feet

Lost in a mode so primitive
Run in the dark, so innocent
Still on my lips, you're cinnamon, I know

Say, "Oh"
You know it's all that keeps me going
When I see that fire dancing in your eyes
Oh, well go ahead and cut me open
Won't you use my body like a sacrifice?
And I swear I'll never let you lose that light

Stars go out, still believe we can't lose
Two poor kids in a hotel room
Love going further than your eyes can see
Dream all day till we're falling asleep

Lost in a mode so primitive
Run in the dark, so innocent
Still on my lips, you're cinnamon, I know

Say, "Oh"
You know it's all that keeps me going
When I see that fire dancing in your eyes
Oh, well go ahead and cut me open
Won't you use my body like a sacrifice?
And I swear I'll never let you lose that light

Never lose that light
Never lose that light
Never lose that-

Won't you use my body like a sacrifice?
And I swear I'll never let you lose that light
