

Unknowing

Loreen

My head over heels
My heart is so unseen
But take all I thought I need
Your heart is how I'm choosing

Will I live to know it?
I don't really know it
Even now as I fall down
I don't really need to know it

Over my mind's eye
Your love is all seasons
I see our shapes reveal
I don't need you but I'm choosing you

Will you live to know it?
(I didn't need to try)
I don't really know it
(You're holding me as life fades up)
Even now as I fall down
I don't really need to know it
(I didn't need to try, we'll always have it)
You're holding me as life fades up

I didn't need to try, we'll always have it
You're holding me as life fades up
I didn't need to try, we'll always have it
You're holding me as life fades up
I didn't need to try, we'll always have it
You're holding me as life fades up
I didn't need to try, we'll always have it
You're holding me as I wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
