

Let Down

Loren Gray

Let down
I don't wanna see you get upset now
Been trying to tell you not to get your hopes up
Don't want you to be someone else I let down
Oh, what a let down

Let down
I don't wanna see you get upset now
Been trying to tell you not to get your hopes up
Don't want you to be someone else I let down
Oh, what a let down

What if I
Told you that I love you but I'm paranoid
'Cause I don't wanna hurt you like I know I will I'm always good until I'm gone

Ooh-ooh-ooh
I know I'm running from the truth
Don't want you finding someone new
But I can't give you what you need

Let down
I don't wanna see you get upset now
Been trying to tell you not to get your hopes up
Don't want you to be someone else I let down
Oh, what a let down

Slow down, baby
Can we stop now?
Lately, I've been losing sleep over you
I know it's not worth it
'Cause we won't stop hurting
If we both keep ignoring the truth

Ooh-ooh-ooh
I know I'm running back to you
Can't have you finding someone new
But I can't give you what you need

Let down
I don't wanna see you get upset now
Been trying to tell you not to get your hopes up
Don't want you to be someone else I let down
Oh, what a let down

Stressed out
I don't wanna see you get upset now
Been trying to tell you not to get your hopes up
Don't want you to be someone else I let down
Oh, what a let down
