Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you

I know we feel so close, but your close ain't good enough
We're going around and 'round and come back to the two of us
Everybody's talkin' and it sounds so loud
And even though they want me, I'm gonna let them down

Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Yeah, I got a lot, you got a few
They don't compare, you know the truth
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you

You know it feels so hard just to focus right now
But when I see your face the crowd fades in the background
They only want attention, so I drown them out
You know we got a connection, I'm gonna let them down

Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Yeah, I got a lot, you got a few
They don't compare, you know the truth
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you

Yeah, I only want you

Give your heart to me, no stoppin' it
Give your love to me, no stoppin' it
Give it all to me, no stoppin' it, yeah
Give your heart to me, no stoppin' it
Give your love to me, no stoppin' it
Give it all to me, no stoppin' it, yeah

Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you
Yeah, I got a lot, you got a few
They don't compare, you know the truth
Baby, I got options, I got options
But I only want you

Yeah, I only want you
(Yeah, alright, alright)
(Yeah, alright, alright)
Yeah, I only want you
