

Always Wanting You

Loretta Lynn

Always wanting you but never having you Makes it hard to face tomorrow cause I know I'll wake up wantin g you again
Always loving you ah but never touching you
Sometimes hurts me almost more than I can stand

I'd been better off if I turned away and never looked at you th e second time
Cause I really had my life all together till your eyes met mine
And there I saw you yearning and the feeling frost the room tha t you felt for me Wish I'd had a way of knowin' that the things we had in mind co uld never be Always wanting you...

Always loving you ah but never touching you
Sometimes hurts me almost more than I can stand
