

Back In Baby's Arms

Loretta Lynn

I'm back in baby's arms how I've missed those lovin' arms
I'm back where I belong back in baby's arms

Don't know why we quarrel we never did before
Since we found out how it hurts I bet we never quarrel anymore
I'm back in baby's arms...

Thought I didn't need his love till it took away
Now I'm back where I belong in my baby's arms I'm gonna stay
I'm back in baby's arms...
Back in baby's arms back in baby's arms
