Loretta Lynn

I just can't get it through my head you love another now instea d Can't make myself believe we're really through I'm walkin' up and down the hall talkin' to the silent wall I'll lose my mind before I'm over you I think I've almost lost my mind I think about you all the time I'm goin' crazy yes I know and I don't have far to go The way you treat me is a shame but I'll keep lovin' you the sa me I'll lose my mind before I'm over you I keep your letters I should burn I wear your ring I should ret urn But there's a million foolish things I do It makes me cry but you would laugh to know I kiss your photogr aph I'll lose my mind before I'm over you

I think I've almost lost my mind...
