

God Gave Me a Heart to Forgive

Loretta Lynn

It's midnight now and I'm still all alone
It's always late each night when you come home
I stay and take each heartache that you give cause God gave me a heart to forgive
Yes I could call these tears my closest friends
They stay with me till you come home again
You brought me every mis'ry that there is but God gave me a hea rt to forgive
You hurt me as much as you can
Then you tell me that you're just weak like any other man Still you're the only reason that I live and God gave me a hear t to forgive

You hurt me as much as you can...
