

Gonna Pack My Troubles

Loretta Lynn

I'm gonna pack my troubles in a big suitcase and dump 'em in the deep blue sea
Come all your lovers from misery lane and a tag along with me Well I'm tired of livin' this kind of life wantin' things that just can't be I'm gonna pack my troubles in a big suitcase and dump 'em in th e deep blue sea

Well then that ole sun it'll start to shine and I won't be blue
no more
Well then I'll find myself a brand new love that's a what I'm l ongin' for
Well the loves I had they've made me sad left my heart swingin'
from a tree
I'm gonna pack my troubles in a big suitcase and dump 'em in th
e deep blue sea

no more
Well then I'll find myself a brand new love that's a what I'm l
ongin' for
Well the loves I had they've made me sad left my heart swingin'
from a tree
I'm gonna pack my troubles in a big suitcase and dump 'em in th
e deep blue sea
And dump them in the deep blue sea
