

I Feel Like I Could Fall In Love With Anyone Tonight

Loretta Lynn

It's a lucky thing I won't be out tonight
I'd buy myself some trouble
Lord, I'd spend a little time with anyone
I wanna be held tight
I feel like I could fall in love with anyone tonight

Though I never felt I'd ever feel this way
I'm left alone so often
Love's a chance to say to anyone
"Stay with me tonight"
I feel like I could fall in love with anyone tonight

Unchained of all convictions
[?] set me free
And making love without love has never taken me
Oh loneliness can do so much to change a lady's mind
I feel like I could fall in love with anyone tonight

Oh loneliness can do so much to change a lady's mind
I feel like I could fall in love with anyone tonight
