G Ever since you left me I've done nothing but wrong G Many nights I've laid awake and cried We once were happy, my heart was in a whirl G But now I'm a Honky Tonk girl. A7 So turn that Jukebox way up high A7 And fill my glass up while I cry I've lost ev'rything in this world Α7 And now I'm a Honky Tonk girl. I just can't make a right with all of my wrongs Α7 Ev'ry ev'ning of my life seems so long I'm sorry and ashamed for all these things you see But losin' him has made a fool of me. A7 G So fill my glass up to the brim Α7 G To lose my mem-o-ry of him I've lost ev'rything in this world A7 And now I'm a honky tonk girl. All he ever gave me was a reason to go bad And it's not hard to see just what I am

But losing him has made a fool of me.

I'm ashamed and I'm sorry for everything you see
